

Faster deliveries. Full control. One platform.

Run in-house & third-party deliveries in sync—
from prep to doorstep.

Too Many Apps, No Control

Managing delivery shouldn't feel like chaos. Without a connected system, orders pile up, drivers idle, & customers are left guessing where their food is. Every minute of delay costs time, tips, and repeat business.

70%

Increase in labor costs
since 2020 makes every inefficiency cost more.

30%

Taken by 3rd-party apps, yet most systems still depend on them.
HungerRush puts you back in control.

HungerRush Delivery Management Solution

With HungerRush you have a complete command center, orchestrating every delivery order across every major channel; both direct and third party. Coordinate orders from kitchen to driver routing & tracking with guest notifications. Make delivery your effortless super power.

HungerRush's delivery management has made my drivers' lives easier... they can see the order, call the customer, and get directions—right in the app.”

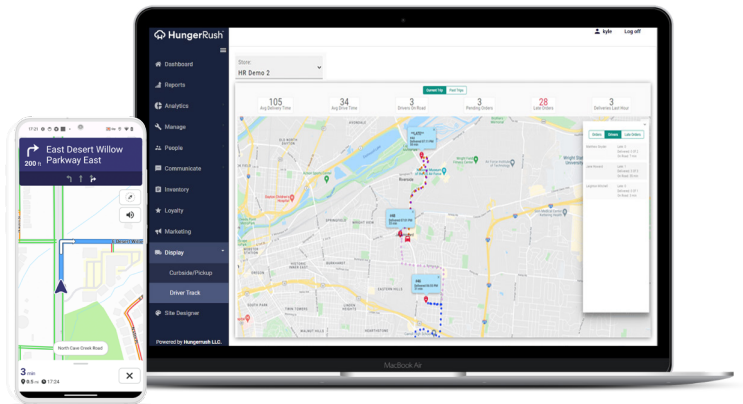

— DAN MCDOWELL, FRANCHISEE, SAHARA PIZZA

Visibility & Control

See every order & driver in one place—whether it's your crew or a 3rd party. No extra dashboards, no blind spots, no hidden markups, no guessing games.

- See every route in motion—right from your POS.
- Keep deliveries on track by reassigning drivers in seconds.
- Resolve issues with instant late-order alerts.
- Compare performance across locations to spot wins & fix slowdowns.

Flexibility & Scale

Scale delivery on demand. Use your own driver fleet, Uber Direct, or DoorDash Drive interchangeably.

- Expand your fleet instantly with POS native Uber & DoorDash integrations.
- Protect profits with pay-as-you-use pricing & no contracts.
- Deliver faster, with fewer mistakes through auto-assign & live tracking.
- Manage your entire delivery operation from one POS, not endless dashboards.

Guest Experience & Efficiency

Keep guests in the know with automatic updates. No more “Where’s my food?” calls and stressed staff—just hotter food & happier guests.

- Cut “Where’s my food?” calls with automatic SMS order updates.
- Reduce errors and remakes for hotter, on-time deliveries.
- Serve fresh food and keep guests coming back.
- Support by experts in restaurants and tech.
