

Order Notifications

Delight Guests. Reduce Chaos.
Streamline Service.

Real-time order updates for pickup and delivery.

Order Notifications automatically text guests with real-time updates—when their order is almost ready, on the way, or delivered—keeping them informed without tying up your team. No more “Where’s my food?” calls, no unnecessary interruptions—just frictionless service, fewer mistakes, and happier guests.

Why Restaurants Love It

Reduce Call Volume

Fewer status calls mean more time for service and new sales.

Keep Pickup Areas Organized

Fewer early arrivals and less crowding.

Improve Accuracy

Guests arrive with order numbers in hand, reducing mix-ups.

Save Staff Time

Messages send automatically from your existing systems.

Boost Guest Satisfaction

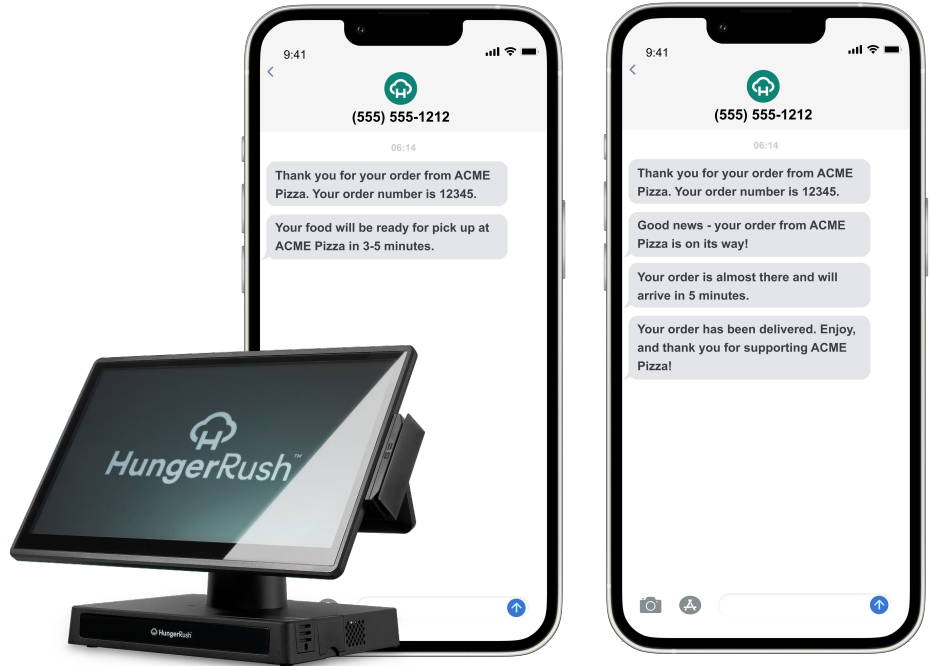

Confident, informed customers come back more often.

Reduce Waste

Fewer cold meals, fewer remakes, more efficiency.

How It Works

- Customer places an order (in-person, phone, or online).
- POS, KDS, or Driver Track actions automatically trigger text updates.
- Messages are short, branded, and timed for key order stages—no manual sending.
- Guests know when to arrive or expect delivery, and staff stay focused on service.

Key Features

- Fully automated—no new apps or workflows.
- Customizable templates for brand voice and tone.
- Supports both pickup and delivery orders.
- Integrates with POS, KDS, and Driver Track.
- Flexible pricing tiers to fit your message volume.
- Fast setup—complete a simple form, get installed, and go live.

“Order text notifications have been a major game changer for us. Customers love getting real-time updates on the status of their food orders. Our pickup orders are served fresher and more efficiently which saves us time, money and hassle.”

—Joel Mills, Co-founder of Piesano's
